

Northwest Oklahoma Basketball Academy Camp Goals and Philosophy

A week long training system designed to build a foundation in fundamentals, a grass roots approach to the game of basketball. Today's traditional fundamentals require a different approach to teaching. Quickness, body control, change of direction, foot work and change of speeds lead to better on court decisions. These are critical for players to be better shooters, ball handlers, defenders and passers. Years of development through youth college and professional teaching the Academy has developed a formula for success

Brent Price

University of Oklahoma basketball legend and 11 year NBA veteran, Brent has given his life to the game he loves. At the University of Oklahoma he averaged 18ppg, scored 56 points against Loyola-Marymount, held an NCAA record with 11 of 19 threes in a game, while leading the Sooners in assists, steals and three pointers. Brent was drafted by the Washington Bullets where he scored 30pts against Michael Jordan's Chicago Bulls and set the consecutive three point record with 13 which still stands. Brent later played with NBA greats Hakeem Olajuwon, Clyde Drexler, and Charles Barkley with the Houston Rockets. Then was traded to the Vancouver Grizzlies and finished his career with the Sacramento Kings which reached the Western Conference Finals in 2001.
