We know that every student brings unique skills and talents to our college. At Northern, you can become the person you want to be. Instead of blending into the crowd, you can be involved in what makes you... you! Take the stage in a musical, get involved in student government or play intramural sports. Lead a class discussion, write for the college newspaper or root for the varsity sport teams. However you decide to get involved, you’ll create a network of friends to last a lifetime... and learn what you want to be. Instead of blending into the crowd, you can be involved in what makes you unique. At Northern, you can become the person you want to be. Instead of blending into the crowd, you can be involved in what makes you... you!
