Northern Oklahoma College is partnering with University College in Dublin, Ireland’s oldest and most renowned university, to offer the 2016 DUBLIN SUMMER PROGRAM, June 12–25, 2016. Students will attend courses, participate in educational and cultural faculty-led and independent field programs and enjoy guest lectures. Students will be a part of an Irish and international university community in one of the most beautiful cities in the world. (Additional info: www.noc.edu/global)

GLBL 2113: Global Studies in Humanities (H, I) This course will explore Ireland’s rich and diverse cultural aspects. Students will examine cultural fields such as literature, music, visual and performing arts, sports, anthropology, religion, language, history, politics and philosophy. (Meets requirements for humanities elective and International Dimension.)

ENGL 2413: Introduction to Creative Writing (H) This course includes the study and practice of creative writing as it pertains to poetry, fiction and creative nonfiction, both from a critical and personal perspective. (Meets requirements for humanities elective.)

There will be a required pre-departure reading packet for both courses.

HOUSING and MEALS: Students stay in UCD dormitories in en suite single rooms. The residence hall reception desk is staffed 24 hours a day. Students will have access to: laundry facilities, college library, computer lab, common kitchen, student center, gym, WiFi and swimming pool. All students will receive $15* per day meal allowance which can be used to purchase meals in the various campus catering facilities.

FEE: $2,800 (airfare is separate and must be organized by the student) A non-refundable deposit of $700 will be due upon enrollment. A second deposit of $1,380 will be charged to student accounts and due in early March 2016 and is non-refundable after March 1, 2016. The fee includes tuition, fees, housing (during the 14 days of courses), books, orientation tour, some local transport, required course activities, International Student ID card, a group excursion outside of Dublin and meal allowance (2 meals per day*). Students will need money for local travel, shopping, some meals, independent tours/travel, etc.

DEADLINE: The last day to enroll is May 1, 2016; however, due to limited space available, we anticipate space to fill up before the deadline. If a student enrolls after early March, the deposit and second payment are due upon enrollment. The final balance ($720*) will be due May 1, 2016.
