2020-2021 RESIDENCE LIFE HANDBOOK

Welcome to the Residence Halls at Northern Oklahoma College

For new students, it is a hearty welcome to the Northern family; for returning students, it is the welcoming back of familiar faces. We are pleased that you have chosen to live at NOC. Here at NOC we are committed to creating an environment conducive to learning, leadership development and relationship building.

As we know, a college education is certainly not limited to the classroom alone. Any education for “life” also includes the social and interpersonal dimensions of resident life. These elements are important to a well-rounded education. Best of all, NOC residents have close and immediate access to the academic, social and recreational activities at NOC.

Again, welcome to Northern and our hope is that as a member of our residential community, you will gain life-long friendships, new interests and skills and a better understanding of yourself and others.

Best wishes and success,

If necessary, students may ask the Residence Hall Director to sit in on the discussion and attempt to resolve the conflict. If the conflict remains unresolved, students may also contact the Dean of Students to help attempt to resolve the issue. Only after these resources have been used, students may then make a request for a room change.

WHOM DO STUDENTS TALK WITH ABOUT A PERSONAL SITUATION?

The residence hall staff is an excellent resource for students. If they do not have a solution, then they will refer students to the appropriate office on campus.

The residence halls are equipped with coin-operated washers and dryers. Students must furnish their laundry supplies.

ARE STUDENTS ALLOWED PETS?

No pets are allowed in the residence halls.

During finals week, 24-hour quiet hours are in effect. See the NOC Student Handbook for more information.

NOC provides and maintains two RJ-45 Ethernet connections in each residence hall room. To connect a computer, a 10/100Base - T Ethernet card must be installed in the computer and a RJ-45 Ethernet cable will be needed. Note: an RJ-45 cable is NOT the same thing as a phone cable. Please utilize only the port that is located in your room. Limited wireless access is also available in all residence halls. A login is required for wireless access. Your login information is located on Campus Connect under your student demographic information. Please be aware that NOC reserves the right to monitor any and all electronic transmissions over the network. Additional details of NOC's policy on proper use of student IT resources can be obtained at the IT Help Desk or online (noc.edu).
