

Register for Late-Start Courses

You must log in to your myNoc account from the NOC website for registration. The Registration function will remain open for any course that has not yet started so you can continue, for instance, to enroll in late 8-week courses up until the first day of that class. After the 16-week courses close, a search by course will show you only the upcoming courses:

Registration

A screenshot of the 'Student Registration' page. At the top, there is a red header with the text 'Student Registration'. Below this is a white box containing a dropdown menu for '2020-2021 Academic Year - Spring Semester' and a red link for 'My Schedule'. The main content area is titled 'Course Search' and includes a 'Back to search' link. Two course listings are shown, each with a blue plus icon on the left and a red three-dot menu icon on the right. The first listing is for 'BIOL-1114-0-36 Online', a 'Spring Semester Late 8 Weeks' course from 03/15/20 to 05/07/21, with '10 seats remaining' and instructor 'Crystal R Davis'. The second listing is for 'BIOL-1114-0-37 Online', a 'Spring Semester Late 12 Weeks' course from 02/12/21 to 05/07/21, with '14 seats remaining' and instructor 'Mary Elizabeth Gard'.
