

'Building a Better NOC' initiative announced

"Building a Better NOC," a new program at Northern Oklahoma College was presented by President Dr. Clark Harris at the Board of Regents meeting Wednesday in Stillwater.

The program will include many BLDG (Brainstorm, Listen, Discuss & Grow) Workshops that are designed to provide a positive, solutions-based approach for employees, students, and the community to share issues and suggested solutions to improve many different areas of the college. Harris said, "We want to start the conversations with questions, not answers."

A Dec. 1 meeting with students and a Dec. 2 meeting with faculty and staff are planned to begin these conversations. These first hour-long solutions-based workshops will focus on making the residence halls more appealing, fun and livable.

The BLDG Workshops will be held on a regular basis throughout the spring semester covering topics are all connected to the college strategic goals of 1) Student Quality of Life, 2) Student Recruitment/Retention/Graduation, 3) Employee Quality of Life, and 4) Increased Revenue Streams.

The NOC Board of Regents also added a member as Jason Turnbow of Enid replaces Stan Brownlee, also from Enid.

Turnbow, an officer of Security National Bank in Enid, was sworn in prior to the Wednesday

Board of Regents' meeting by the Hon. Phillip Corley, District Judge for Payne and Noble Counties.

Wednesday's meeting was also the final meeting for Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Pam Stinson. Stinson accepted a Provost Position in Academic Affairs for OSU-OKC.

"Dr. Stinson is beloved by all at NOC. We appreciate all she has done for NOC and we wish her well in her new job in Oklahoma City," said NOC President Dr. Clark Harris.

Regents also approved the FY2021 Internal Audit presented by Kirk Vanderslice of Hinkle and Co., PC and the FY2021 External Audit presented by Dan Bledsoe of Finley & Cook, PLLC. Bledsoe reported the external audit report was an unmodified opinion on compliance with no findings, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies identified. He complimented Vice President for Financial Affairs Anita Simpson and her team on their due diligence and cooperation throughout the audit process.

In administrator updates, Vice President for Community Relations & Development Sheri Snyder announced the Greater Gift Drive campaign is underway. She said that over 15,000 letters will be mailed to donors and potential donors in November.

Regents

NOC Enid Vice President Jeremy Hise told regents that the Enid Higher Education Council fundraising campaign for 2021-2024 is nearing completion, raising approximately $300,000.00, for the four-year period to provide scholarships for students within 50 miles of Enid that attend NOC Enid and Northwestern Oklahoma State University-Enid.

The regents also approved the 2022-23 Academic Calendar. The fall semester will begin

Aug. 15, 2022 and the spring semester will begin Jan. 9, 2023.

Also speaking at the Program Showcase were Dr. Don Stinson who spoke on the Chikaskia Literary Festival and Wade Watkins who presented a program on NOC Global Education.

The next regents meeting is Wednesday, Dec. 15 in the Large Conference Room in the Vineyard Library/Administration Building at 1 p.m. at NOC Tonkawa.

ARP Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERFIII)

(November 16, 2021) Northern Oklahoma College received a third round of stimulus funding of $3,947,651 from the American Rescue Plan (ARP) to award as financial aid grants to students and to help support our students' needs and challenges due to the coronavirus pandemic.

The American Rescue Plan was passed by Congress and signed into law March 11, 2021 to provide economic relief from COVID. The grant funds are from the U.S. Department of Education's Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III (HEERF III) and were established to prioritize students with the greatest financial need.

These funds are similar to the CARES Act funds and the CRRSAA funds that were distributed by the college last year. The funds can be distributed to support any component of the students' cost of attendance or for emergency costs that may arise due to COVID, such as tuition, food, housing, course materials, technology, health care (including mental health) and child care.

Under ARP, a student is now defined as any individual who is enrolled at an eligible institution on or after March 13, 2020, the date of declaration of the national emergency due to the coronavirus, regardless of whether they completed a FAFSA or are eligible for Title IV aid. The HEERF III student aid grants are available to all students, which now includes international, concurrent and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival (DACA) students.

Most NOC Students who are enrolled for Fall 2021 as of November 11, 2021 will be eligible for a portion of the ARP funds under the HEERF III.

NOC/OSU Gateway Program students billed by OSU will not be receiving ARP funds. They are eligible to receive ARP funds through OSU.

The ARP emergency assistance funding is federal grant assistance that does not need to be repaid; but it does require institutions to prioritize grants to students with exceptional financial need, such as those who are eligible for Federal Pell Grant funds. Additional information including the estimated amount of your disbursement and the date of disbursement will be sent to students via their email within the next couple of weeks.

The ARP emergency grant funds will be re-funded directly to the students via their Bursar's account without applying the funds to any outstanding balances they may have. If you have not designated your refund option, please go to MyNOC, then under the Students tab, click Billing. The direct deposit designation is in the middle of the page. Please have this completed before midnight on November 30th.

If you have any questions or need more information about the NOC ARP Funds, please contact the NOC Financial Aid office at financial.aid@noc.edu.
