Planetarium Show set for Feb. 2

The Mackie Planetarium on the NOC Enid campus will present a new show Feb. 2 at 7 p.m.

NOC Planetarium Director Fritz Osell will present the night sky over Enid and show prominent constellations in the early evening sky. The constellation Orion is visible in the early evening. Osell will show visitors how they can see a star factory in Orion.

Osell said that most of the planets are near the sun this month. Osell said he can dim the sun and show the planets near the sun in the afternoon sky.

Visitors will be able to see which of the zodiac constellations the sun and planets are visiting this month.

Osell will also take planetarium visitors on a journey through time from the beginning of the universe through the present and 3000 years into the future.

There is no charge but donations of non-perishable food items for Our Daily Bread and Loaves and Fishes are accepted.

Masks and social distancing are encouraged for all NOC sponsored events.

Blood Drive in Enid Jan. 28

The Oklahoma Blood Institute is hosting a blood drive on the Enid campus Jan. 28.

At NOC Enid, the blood drive is held in Montgomery Hall in the Gantz Center on Friday, Jan. 28 from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Donors receive a long sleeve t-shirt for their donation.

Donors are tested for the COVID-19 antibodies. The test detects either natural or vaccine response.

Vaccine Clinic Feb. 2 in Enid

NOC Enid is hosting a community Vaccine Clinic Wednesday, Feb. 2 inside Montgomery Hall.

Hours of the clinic are 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Free tax preparation at Tonkawa

Northern Oklahoma College is providing free basic income tax return preparation for students, NOC employees, and area residents starting Feb. 3 at NOC Tonkawa.

Singles or families making less than $58,000 per year qualify for the free service.

Trained tax preparers from the NOC Business Division and area volunteers will be available for tax assistance beginning Thursday, Feb. 3. Taxpayers also have an option to prepare their own basic federal and state tax return using the free e-filing software.

Cara Beth Johnson, Business division chair said, "This is a great opportunity for our students to provide a community service and gain tax preparation experience."

The Cultural Engagement Center (CEC) is hosting the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program every Thursday through April 14. The CEC will be closed March 14-18 for spring break and for inclement weather. The CEC is located in the library in the Vineyard Administration/Library building.

Interested parties need to bring a photo ID for all filers; Social Security cards and birthdates for taxpayer, spouse, and dependents; W-2 forms; 1099 forms; receipts for childcare costs, education expenses, and other deductions; checking account and routing number for refund; and 1095-A, -B, or -C healthcare coverage or exemption.

It is necessary to make an appointment by contacting Cara Beth Johnson at 580.628.6340 or carolyn.johnson@noc.edu. Tax preparers are available from 4 p.m. - 8 p.m. No drop offs will be accepted, individuals must be present during tax preparation.

Barbara Nickles is the VITA site coordinator and NOC students Megan Rice and Cassidie Schmidt will assist her in preparing the tax returns. All have taken and passed all the required IRS tax preparer coursework.

Northern Oklahoma College and the IRS are sponsoring the program.
