NOC Enid President's Leadership Council students hosted the Veterans Day Ceremony Friday at the Gantz Center. The students served cake to area veterans and also provided pins to local veterans. The event was streamed to the Tonkawa and Enid campuses.

Enid area veterans were honored at NOC Enid on Friday. They were served cake by NOC Enid President's Leadership Council.

Cynthia Smith speaks at vets program

Enid Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) Regent Cynthia Smith was the keynote speaker at the NOC Enid Veterans Day Ceremony Friday.

Dr. Mary Ann McCoy, Chairman of the NOC Diversity Committee opened the program and introduced Smith who spoke of her lineage in the military including her father who served in the Pacific Theatre in World War II. He was part of the "Lost Battalion" at the Leyete Gulf in the Philippines.

Smith's husband Robert, spoke of his service in the Viet Nam War where he served as a clerk starting in 1968.

NOC Vice President for Enid Jeremy Hise said that, "It's always a good day to thank a veteran and we can never thank you enough for your service."

NOC President Dr. Clark Harris provided the closing remarks saying, "I thank you for protecting America and the world. We are forever in your debt and can never say thank you enough."

Smith played the anthem for each branch of the military with each veteran standing for their specific song.

The event closed with a rendition of "Taps."
