Mavs upend NOC Enid 75-73

Anthony Ignowski's lay-up with :10.1 remaining was the difference in the Mavericks 75-73 win over NOC Enid in a Monday night thriller in Tonkawa.

Monday's win improved the Mavs to 11-7 on the year and 3-2 in conference while the Jets dropped to 8-12 and 0-6 in league play.

"We knew going into the game it would be a battle," said coach Brandon Gossett. "These rivalry games are always a lot of fun. I was proud of our efforts defensively in the second half. We seemed to be more locked in on our mission and it led us to having an opportunity to win the game in our final possession. That last play was executed perfect by everyone allowing for Anthony to give us the go-ahead lay-up."

The Mavs trailed 42-32 at half but erased the margin taking a 56-55 lead with 9:39 remaining.

In a game that featured six ties and seven lead changes, the Mavs took a 73-69 lead on a Jordan Gorecki dunk with 1:45 left. After the Jets tied the game at 73-73, the Mavs then scored the game winner on Ignowski's lay-up.

The Mavs then prevailed when Kole Scott's shot for NOC Enid was off the mark.

Javontae Campbell led the Mavs with 17 while Ignowski added 14, James Brown, Jr. 13, and Tyson Brown 12.

Digital Media Insitute

Northern Oklahoma College Digital Media Institute (DMI) program students participated in the 48-hour film competition Jan 19-21.

During the competition, students created a five-minute video in a 48-hour period using a random line of dialogue given to students at the beginning of the 48-hour period.

The 48-hour period began Jan19 at 6 p.m.

According to DMI program director Brad Matson, "The film festival is demanding and encourages a high level of creativity and efficiency in production."

All brainstorming, filming, editing, special effects and rendering must've been done within the 48-hour period. Films may include sound, dialogue and music.

Each film had a crew that includes a director and a number of team members.

The films were screened Sunday, Jan 21 afternoon at 6 p.m.

Lady Mavs fall to NOC Enid 75-73

In a see-saw battle between the two NOC women's programs, NOC Enid held on for a 75-73 win at Foster-Piper Fieldhouse over the Lady Mavs.

The Lady Mavs held a double digit first half lead and took a 38-31 lead into the dressing room. NOC then took a 55-48 lead into the fourth quarter but the Lady Jets went on an 11-0 run to take a 59-55 lead.

The Lady Mavs then countered to take a 62-59 lead with 6:45 left.

Trailing 70-67 with 1:43 left, Brooke Robertson scored and then Kaydrin Scott's basket gave the Lady Mavs a 71-70 lead. Then, trailing 75-73, the Lady Mavs had one last possession with Scott's short jumper going in and out.

Scott led the Lady Mavs with 33 while Marta Perez had 14 and Brooke Robertson 10.

"I thought we competed hard, but didn't shoot well enough to win," said coach Greg Krause. "We had some costly untimely turnovers that I thought were game changers. Right now, our focus is on road games at Redlands and Connors this Thursday and Saturday – two tough conference opponents."

The Lady Mavs are now 7-10 on the season and 3-2 in league while NOC Enid is 8-6 overall and 3-3 in league play.

NOC is at Redlands on Thursday and at Connors on Saturday in conference road games.
