Lyndey Wilda earns Nevona Kegans athletic training scholarship

Northern Oklahoma College Athletic Training student Lyndey Wild received the Nevona Kegans scholarship for athletic training Thursday night at NOC.

Kegans, a 1961 alumna of Northern Oklahoma Junior College; was a member of the Mavettes, the Women's Basketball Team and served as dorm proctor in Easterling Hall.

She returned to her alma mater in 1963 where she served in many capacities within the athletic and student affairs department.

She was instrumental in establishing the athletic training program at Northern and retired as Dean of Women and HPE&R division chair after serving the institution for 40 years.

Kegans' commitment to Northern and continued support will provide students a chance to pursue their higher educational goals at Northern Oklahoma College.

Wilda, this year's winner, is a Biological Science Pre-Med and HPE&R Athletic Training major.

She is also a member of the Maverick Women's Wrestling team. She is the daughter of Mike and Stacy Wilda and a graduate of Perry High School.

She is the 8th recipient of this award and is receiving a $500 scholarship.

Joining Wilda on the court was her mother, Stacy Wilda.

Representing Nevona Kegans in her absence, and presenting the scholarship certificate to Wilda were HPE&R Instructor and Division Chair, Suzi Brown and Athletic Trainer, Summer McClure. Assisting with the presentation are NOC President Diana Morris Watkins, Director of Development and Donor Relations Candy Oller, and Athletic Director Alan Foster.

NOC Sheep Production students Tanner Otto, Abigail Barnhart, and Chloe Corbin attended the Ft. Worth Open Sheep Show with NOC Shepherd Bart Cardwell.

Sheep Center students at Ft.Worth

Three NOC students in the Spring 2025 Sheep Production Class were able to make the trip to Ft Worth for the FWSSR Open Sheep Show. Tanner Otto, Ponca City, OK; Abigail Barnhart, Perkins, OK and Chloe Corbin, Guymon, OK, prepped and exhibited the NOC Sheep Center exhibit consisting of 11 head of Dorset and Hampshire sheep raised by the sheep center.

NOC 24015 Dorset Ram earned Champion Ram honors while a flushmate, NOC 24034, earned the Champion Dorset Ewe honors in the Dorset division. NOC was also named the Champion Flock at the FWSSR.

In the Hampshire division, NOC 24064 was selected as the Champion Hampshire Ram and NOC also earned the Champion Flock honors as well.

In all, the exhibit posted top two finishes with all but two of their 11 entries. It was a very successful outing for the NOC Sheep Center Team. We also want to thank our alumni that helped with getting them exhibited, Aaron Mahan and the work of our students at the Sheep Center, Kinzie Bell, Colton Tripp, Shelby Harland, Paige Burns and Adi Sheets.

Tanner, Abigail, Chloe and the other 15 students unable to make FWSSR will be traveling to Houston in March to exhibit the show flock at the HLSR.

NOC Fine Arts students take a bow after the Homecoming Show on Wednesday at the KPAC.

Fine Arts presents student recital Feb. 24

The Northern Oklahoma College of Fine Arts is presenting a Black History Month Fine Arts Student Recital on Monday, Feb. 24.

The recital will be held at the Vineyard Library Cultural Engagement Center at 3 p.m.

The choir, vocal, instrumental soloists, and the jazz band will perform songs in African American traditions or by African American composers.

The event is free and open to the public.

Income tax prep at NOC Tonkawa

Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa is providing free basic income tax return preparation for students, NOC employees, and area residents starting Feb. 13 at NOC Tonkawa.

Singles or families making less than $75,000 per year qualify for the free service.

Trained tax preparers from the NOC Business Division and area volunteers will be available for tax assistance beginning on specific Thursdays starting Feb. 13. Taxpayers also have an option to prepare their own basic federal and state tax return using the free e-filing software.

Cara Beth Johnson, Business division chair said, "This is a great opportunity for our students to provide a community service and gain tax preparation experience."

The Cultural Engagement Center (CEC) is hosting the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program Feb. 13, Feb. 27, March 13, March 27, and April 10. The CEC is located in the Vineyard Administration/Library building.

Interested parties need to provide a photo ID for all filers; Social Security cards and birthdates for taxpayer, spouse, and dependents; W-2 forms; 1099 forms; receipts for childcare costs, education expenses, and other deductions; checking account and routing number for refund; and 1095-A, -B, or -C healthcare coverage or exemption.

Tax preparation is done by appointment only. Please contact Cara Beth Johnson at 580.628.6340 or carolyn.johnson@noc.edu.

Northern Oklahoma College and the IRS are sponsoring the program.
