NOC Tonkawa students assist with Stamp Out Starvation

Over 60 Northern Oklahoma College students participated in a Stamp Out Starvation project Sunday at the First United Methodist Church in Tonkawa.

According to NOC instructor Dr. Kurt Campbell, 107 total volunteers packaged 30,762 meals bound to Haiti in a two-hour period.

Stamp Out Starvation started in 2007 by founder Monte Steward from Cherokee.

It is a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide nutritious meals to people all around the world even in Oklahoma.

"We are able to accomplish this by organizing community and youth volunteer packaging events of Stamp Out Starvation's highly nutritious meals," Steward said on his website stampoutstarvation.com.

Each Stamp Out Starvation food package contains six servings and each bag is prepared in less than 20 minutes by adding the food package to boiling water.

Each Stamp Out Starvation food package is based off of a rice and soy casserole that is fortified with 21 essential vitamins and minerals, six dehydrated vegetables, and chicken flavoring. This soy (52% protein) and nutrient-rich formula reverses the starvation process.

Stewart creates and assembly line of volunteers who add the meal ingredients to plastic bags that are then sealed and boxed for shipment anywhere in the world.

NOC student groups included Nursing, Aggie Club, President's Leadership Council, Fine Arts, and Mavs' baseball. Sponsors included Shannon Varner, Bart Cardwell, Ryan Bay, and Kurt Campbell.

The volunteers enjoyed lunch before the event, sponsored by the church.

For more information, contact Stamp Out Starvation at www.stampoutstarvation.com.

Eurydice set for KPAC Sept. 23-26

The Northern Oklahoma College Division of Fine Arts presents "Eurydice" by Sarah Ruhl, Sept. 23-26 at the Kinzer Performing Arts Center.

Showtimes on Sept. 23-25 are 7:30 p.m. and Sept. 26 at 2 p.m.

The play is directed by Emily Rose Parman. Admission is free, children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. There is limited seating, social distancing and face masks are strongly encouraged.

Busted Knuckle Truck Parade Friday

The Busted Knuckle Truck Parade is set for Friday, Sept. 17 in Tonkawa.

The parade begins at 6 p.m., students will gather at the entrance to the college circle to view the parade entries.

The Wilkins Truck Company at the Tonkawa (Fountain Road) Exit off I-35 is hosting the Busted Knuckle Truck Show this Friday and Saturday. It is similar to a ramped up car show, that they expect to have as many as 500 trucks. Many restored semi-trucks and many working trucks will be on display at their business, but they are also holding a convoy that will travel through Tonkawa and pass in front of the NOC Tonkawa campus.

ACT Prep Workshops this week

NOC will host two ACT Prep Workshops later in September.

The workshops are conducted by testing specialist Shelly Beaty. The workshops provide tip and skills for a higher ACT score.

The dates are Wednesday, Sept. 22 in Tonkawa and Thursday, Sept. 23 in Enid. Registration is at 8:30 a.m. and the presentation from 9 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

The cost is $20. The deadline for registration is Sept. 20.

Watkins selected to Perry Distinguished Alumni Association's Honor Roll

A 1993 graduate of Perry High School, Diana Morris Watkins, a doctoral student in Oklahoma State University's Higher Education and Student Affairs Program, received her master's degree in Teaching, Learning and Leadership from OSU. Her bachelor's degree in Secondary English Education is an Honors Program Degree from OSU.

Watkins began her career teaching high school English in Ardmore, Oklahoma. Her move to post-secondary education came in 2000 when she joined the Oklahoma State University Honors Program, now Honors College, as an academic counselor.

She taught English at Perry High School in 2001 before spending four years as an "early childhood educator," taking on the role of full-time mom until her daughter began pre-K.

Named Vice President for NOC Stillwater in March of 2019. Watkins's tenure at the NOC/OSU Gateway Program began in 2005 as an adjunct instructor in the Language Arts Department. In 2007 she was named the Distinguished Adjunct Faculty Member for NOC Stillwater.

After joining the Language Arts Department full-time in 2007, she was named the Distinguished Faculty Member for NOC Stillwater in 2009. Watkins has been an active member of the NOC community, serving on a number of committees and as sponsor of the NOC Stillwater President's Leadership Council. Extremely passionate about student success, Watkins served on the task force that developed NOC's First Gen Mentor Program, a program designed to assist students who are the first in their families to attend college.

Watkins currently serves as a liaison for NOC's involvement with the Pedagogy, Advising and Curricular Excellence (PACE) Project and chairs the committee on recruitment and retention tion for NOC's 2019 - 2023 Strategic Plan. She has traveled with NOC students to Washington, D.C., to Europe on a number of short-term study tours and has taught on short-term residential programs in London, England and Dublin, Ireland.

Watkins developed the NOC Honors Program in an effort to facilitate the successful transfer of NOC students into the OSU Honors College. She has presented at numerous conferences, including the National Association of Developmental Education Conference and the National Collegiate Honors Council Conference.

A graduate of Leadership Stillwater Class XXVIII, Watkins serves on the Stillwater Public Education Foundation Board of Trustees, the Stillwater Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, and as a mentor for the Oklahoma State University Honors College. Watkins is a member of the Stillwater First United Methodist Church.

Diana is the daughter of Roy and Ann Morris. She and her husband Wade, NOC's Dean of Global Education, live in Stillwater, Oklahoma with their rescue dog, Brewster. Their daughter, Emma, is a junior majoring in English and Critical Social Thought at Mount Holyoke College in South Hadley, MA.

Mike Boettcher lectures at NOC Tuesday, Sept. 28 on Afghanistan

Veteran journalist and award-winning war correspondent Mike Boettcher will appear at Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa Tuesday, Sept. 28, as part of the NOC Renfro Lectureship Series.

Boettcher will speak on the U.S. withdrawal of troops from Afghanistan in a speech, "America's Longest War: How we lost our way."

The event is sponsored by the Carl and Carolyn Renfro Endowed Lectureship Program and Northern Oklahoma College.

Tickets for the lectureship may be purchased on a first come, first served basis beginning Tuesday, Sept. 14 at 9 a.m.

A reserved table with seating for eight may be purchased for $400, which includes dinner in the Renfro Center at 6 p.m. The lecture will be held at the Kinzer Performing Arts Center at 7:30 p.m. Dress attire is business casual.

Individual tickets for the lecture only may be purchased at a cost of $20 each. The tickets are non-refundable.

Tickets may be purchased by credit card by calling 580-628-6214 or in person at the NOC Development Office, Vineyard Library-Administration Building, NOC Tonkawa.

The Ponca City native is recognized as one of the world's most experienced foreign correspondents, covering wars and revolutions in every part of the globe since 1980. He spent four of the past 20 years in Afghanistan covering America's longest war.

Boettcher helped launch the era of 24-hour live news coverage when on June 1, 1980, he performed the first live satellite report for a fledgling network called CNN. In almost four decades of assignments covering global conflict for NBC News, CNN and ABC.

He has witnessed, investigated and been a victim of terrorism himself. He was kidnapped and threatened with execution in El Salvador in 1985. Twenty years later, he survived a suicide bomber attack and a roadside bombing in Baghdad. Boettcher covered the emergence of modern terrorist tactics in the early 1980's in Lebanon when the U.S. Marine barracks was bombed, killing 241.

Since 1998, when the U.S. embassies in Africa were bombed, he has been assigned to investigate every major Al Qaeda attack against American targets. In 2000 he created and directed the CNN Terrorism Investigation Unit and led the networks investigation of the 9-11 attacks.

Boettcher is the winner of six national Emmys and a Peabody award.

Former Oklahoma State Regent Carl Renfro and the late Carolyn Renfro established the Carl and Carolyn Renfro Endowed Lectureship Program with a gift in 2006. The primary purpose of the endowment is to provide support to cultivate and enhance the cultural and community enrichment offerings in northern Oklahoma to include lecture and performance series at Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa and in the Ponca City area.

Call the Northern Oklahoma College Development Office at 580.628.6214 for additional information.

There is limited seating, social distancing and masks are strongly encouraged.
