

Mike Boettcher set for Sept. 28 lectureship

 Famed journalist to speak on Afghanistan troop withdrawal*

Veteran journalist and award-winning war correspondent Mike Boettcher will appear at Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa Thursday, Sept. 28, as part of the NOC Renfro Lectureship Series.

Mike Boettcher

Boettcher will speak on the U.S. withdrawal of troops from Afghanistan in a speech, "America's Longest War: How we lost our way."

The event is sponsored by the Carl and Carolyn Renfro Endowed Lectureship Program and Northern Oklahoma College.

Tickets for the lectureship may be purchased on a first come, first served basis beginning Tuesday, Sept. 14 at 9 a.m.

A reserved table with seating for eight may be purchased for $400, which includes dinner in the Renfro Center at 6 p.m. The lecture will be held at the Kinzer Performing Arts Center at 7:30 p.m. Dress attire is business casual.

Individual tickets for the lecture only may be purchased at a cost of $20 each. The tickets are non-refundable.

Tickets may be purchased by credit card by calling 580-628-6214 or in person at the NOC Development Office, Vineyard Library-Administration Building, NOC Tonkawa.

The Ponca City native is recognized as one of the world's most experienced foreign correspondents, covering wars and revolutions in every part of the globe since 1980. He spent four of the past 20 years in Afghanistan covering America's longest war.

Boettcher helped launch the era of 24-hour live news coverage when on June 1, 1980, he performed the first live satellite report for a fledgling network called CNN. In almost four decades of assignments covering global conflict for NBC News, CNN and ABC.

He has witnessed, investigated and been a victim of terrorism himself. He was kidnapped and threatened with execution in El Salvador in 1985. Twenty years later, he survived a suicide bomber attack and a roadside bombing in Baghdad. Boettcher covered the emergence of modern terrorist tactics in the early 1980's in Lebanon when the U.S. Marine barracks was bombed, killing 241.

Since 1998, when the U.S. embassies in Africa were bombed, he has been assigned to investigate every major Al Qaeda attack against American targets. In 2000 he created and directed the CNN Terrorism Investigation Unit and led the networks investigation of the 9-11 attacks.

Boettcher is the winner of six national Emmys and a Peabody award. He is one of five reporters in history to win national Emmy's for three

Jimmy Webb re-scheduled for March 8

The Northern Oklahoma College Renfro Lectureship, featuring Grammy Award winning songwriter Jimmy Webb has been tentatively rescheduled for Tuesday, March 8, 2022.

The event is sponsored by the Carl and Carolyn Renfro Endowed Lectureship Program and Northern Oklahoma College. Webb will appear in the Kinzer Performing Arts Center.

Webb was scheduled to appear on three previous dates since the start of the pandemic in March 2020 but the event was postponed each time due to the pandemic.

Tickets already purchased for the original performances will be honored at the March 8, 2022 rescheduled program. Guests that are not able to attend the rescheduled program can either donate purchased tickets to the NOC Foundation – Renfro Lectureship Program as a tax deduction or request a full refund by Monday, Oct. 4.

different networks. He teaches journalism at his alma mater, the University of Oklahoma, and serves as a Senior Fellow at the OU Center for Intelligence and National Security Former Oklahoma State Regent Carl Renfro and the late Carolyn Renfro established the Carl and Carolyn Renfro Endowed Lectureship Program with a gift in 2006. The primary purpose of the endowment is to provide support to cultivate and enhance the cultural and community enrichment offerings in northern Oklahoma to include lecture and performance series at Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa and in the Ponca City area.

Call the Northern Oklahoma College Development Office at 580.628.6214 for additional information.

There is limited seating, social distancing and masks are strongly encouraged.

NOC announces new 'News You Can Use' podcast

NOC has announced a new podcast, "News You Can Use."

The podcast can be found at <https://www.noc.edu/about-noc/nocnews/news-you-can-use/>.

The podcast, created by Dr. Frankie Wood-Black, Division Chair for Engineering, Physical Sciences, and Process Technology, was funded through a NOC Presidential Partner Grant.

Dr. Wood-Black said the podcast will feature a wide range of topics.

"This series of podcasts will feature community interest stories like how does sports tourism impact our communities, how local entities work with students and other organizations to provide service learning opportunities, features about career topics such as interviews with local professionals, information from our faculty on topics ranging from animal care, lawn care, and health care, as well as updates about activities that NOC would like to share with the local area such as upcoming fine arts performances and sporting events," she said.

"We hope that individuals will suggest topics and enjoy these podcasts as they are going to be produced by NOC students and faculty," she added.

Tonkawa Vaccination Clinic Sept. 16

NOC Tonkawa is hosting a Vaccination Clinic Sept. 16 from 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. in the Student Union in Tonkawa.

Students, faculty, staff, and community members may get their second Covid-19 Vaccination or for those that have not been vaccinated, they can receive their first vaccination.

The Moderna, Pfizer, and Janssen (Johnson and Johnson) vaccinations are available.

Vaccination Incentive program ongoing

Northern Oklahoma College is offering a COVID-19 Vaccine Incentive Program for students and employees.

"The health of our students and employees in our NOC Family is of critical importance," said NOC President Dr. Clark Harris. "As the cases decreased this summer many people dropped their guard to COVID-19, although we are learning that the variants have increased transmission rates and that people that are testing positive is back to the November 2020 levels.

We have learned that people that are vaccinated are less likely to become infected, and if infected the severity of their illness is greatly reduced."

"NOC wants to help keep you healthy, keep you learning in the classrooms, and allow you to stay active in college athletics and activities," Harris added. "We can best accomplish this by having as many people vaccinated as possible at all NOC campuses. We are incentivizing this

Masonic Grant apps due Sept. 15

The Northern Oklahoma College Foundation is offering grants through the Masonic Fraternity of Oklahoma Endowment and the Presidential Partners Program.

These funds are made available to Northern Oklahoma College programs, students and employees whose proposed projects support the Foundation's mission of providing quality educational experiences. NOCF annually determines fund availability and will award grants based on annual earnings of the endowments.

The request forms are to be completed and returned to the Office of Development and Community Relations. The Masonic Endowment request is to be used exclusively for student support. The deadline for Masonic Endowment Grant consideration is September 15.

Presidential Partners funds may be used for student or employee support. Presidential Partners Grant requests may be submitted any time during the year. The Foundation will do its best to provide full or partial funding for all requests; however, submission does not guarantee any funding will be granted.

In 2020-2021, Presidential Partners Program awarded nearly $70,000 to support the NOC campuses, NOC students and NOC employees during the ever changing environment that was created during the COVID-19 pandemic. Below are some highlights of how the program was utilized during the last academic year:

- President's Leadership Council (PLC) — Provided funds to President's Leadership programs at Tonkawa, Enid and Stillwater to support activities as well as promotional items for PLC scholarship students during the 2020-2021 academic year.
- NOC Employees — Provided funds at Tonkawa, Enid and Stillwater to support employee professional development opportunities and enhancements, and NOC employee Christmas gifts during 2020-2021 academic year.
- NOC Institution — Fully funded four new defibrillators installed in the Renfro Center and Kinzer Performing Arts Center at NOC Tonkawa, the Gantz Center at NOC Enid and the NOC Classroom Building at NOC Stillwater.
- Nursing — Provided funding for new lab coats for all nursing faculty and a training defibrillator to be used by the Nursing Program at each location.
- NOC Alumni Relations — Virtual Spirit Week was sponsored by NOC Alumni Relations during the week leading up to graduation. Special events were held on NOC social media to highlight past alums and new alums. During the week, graduates were encouraged to post how NOC was life changing for them.
- Language Arts — Provided funds for honor composition students to work with online learning students during the COVID-19 pandemic. The project, which focused on gratitude, consisted of writing letters to individuals they are grateful for, reading books, and creating a book of their own.
- NOC Recruiting and Retention Mini Grants — New for the 2020-2021 year, NOC employees were asked to submit grants as a way to boost recruiting and retention efforts. The grant committee selected twenty-three proposals to award $25,000 that was earmarked for this program. Some examples of these grants were updating institution, campus and division recruiting totes, an NOC podcast series, #NOCSocialMedia - student run social media platforms, and expansion of the faces of NOC campaign.
