Gene Dougherty artist reception

Northern Oklahoma College honored local artist and retired NOC art instructor Gene Dougherty Tuesday, Nov. 30 with an artist reception at the Eleanor Hays Art Gallery inside the Kinzer Performing Arts Center at NOC Tonkawa.

A number of Dougherty's works were displayed from the 40 piece NOC collection. Some of Dougherty's private work was also on display. The exhibit may be seen from 1 p.m. – 5 p.m. Monday -Friday through Dec. 9. The collection may also be viewed privately, please contact gallery director Audrey Schmitz at Audrey.schmitz@noc.edu for more information.

Dougherty, now 92, came to Northern in 1965 as an artist-in-residence and remained until his retirement in 1989. He was employed by then-president Dr. V.R. Easterling, who was looking for an art instructor and had heard of Dougherty from mutual friends, but began his Northern career under Dr. Edwin E. Vineyard. Dougherty taught watercolor and oil painting, drawing, two-dimensional and three-dimensional design, sculpture, woodcarving, art appreciation and art for elementary education majors while continuing to develop his own style, technique and presentation for his personal work. Following his retirement, he returned to teach classes for one semester.

Several of Dougherty's paintings of military subjects have hung in the Senate Office Building and one is in the Pentagon in Washington, D.C. Another, pertaining to the Air Force campaign in the South Pacific, hangs in the Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs. He created a large mural for the Ponca City Post Office.

He has earned numerous awards for his works, which have been shown in Taos, Denver, Santa Fe, Oklahoma City, Cheyenne and Cody, Wyoming and Lawton, and he is represented in the Philbrook Museum in Tulsa. Currently he has works in the Daffodil Hill gallery in Bethany.

Dougherty earned his bachelor's degree in education from Central State University, now UCO, and his master's degree in secondary art education from Oklahoma State University. He began teaching high school art classes at Sand Springs and taught at Choctaw High School in the Oklahoma City area before joining the Northern faculty.

Canned good donations accepted

A canned food drive is underway at NOC Tonkawa.

The drive, sponsored by the Catholic Student Association, Kappa Beta Delta, and Business Club runs through Dec. 6.

Collection boxes are at Wilkin Hall, Vineyard Library/Administration Building, Harold Hall, Renfro Center, Crowder Hall, and Central Hall.

The canned goods will be used for needy families during the Christmas season.

Angel Tree at Tonkawa admin building

Tonkawa President Leadership Council is sponsoring an Angel Tree in the Vineyard Library/Administration Lobby.

The ornaments represent gifts needed for understood Tonkawa children.

More information is available at the tree located outside the Student Affairs office.

Marcovich Brown and Demorney Hutchinson

Two Mavs sign with Gardner-Webb

Damorney Hutchinson (sophomore, forward, Soho, Jamaica) and Marcovich Brown (sophomore, midfielder, Gregory Park, Jamaica) have signed with Gardner Webb University on full scholarships.

“Congratulations to both guys,” said coach Michael DuRoy. “When we say NOC is “life changing” this is what we are talking about. Less than 10% of all college soccer players are on full scholarships. Both of these guys getting full scholarships at an NCAA D1 school is a blessing. It is a testament to their hard work and what NOC can do for student athletes.”

Hutchinson named All-American

Maverick sophomore Damorney Hutchinson (Soho, Jamaica) has been selected as an All American. Hutchinson led the nation in goals and set a school single season record with 30.

“We are proud of Damorney. He had an amazing season,” said coach Michael DuRoy.

Stuffed animal donations accepted

The Criminal Justice Society in Tonkawa is collecting stuffed animal donations through Dec. 6.

A donation box is located in the Vineyard Library/Administration Building lobby.

The CJS is collecting new and slightly used stuffed animals that will be donated to area first responders who will use them to comfort children who need them when suffering trauma.

Battery operated stuffed animals, toys, and dolls will not be accepted.
