NOC taking steps to reaccredit the nursing program

Northern Oklahoma College Board of Regents heard a presentation from Dr. Nikole Hicks, Nursing Division Chair, regarding the NOC Nursing Accreditation Self Study.

The document was created in advance of an Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) visit scheduled for March 8-10 in the Renfro Center at NOC Tonkawa. ACEN is the accrediting body that approves college nursing programs, and enables them to prepare registered nurses. Public comments on the nursing program may be made Wednesday, March 9, at 3 p.m. in the Renfro Center.

The board passed a resolution supporting the current law regarding weapons on campus, in which the president has the discretion to allow individuals to carry weapons on campus when the individual circumstances warrant it. The resolution strongly opposes any changes to state law regarding weapons on college and university campuses in Oklahoma.

Board members also heard a President Dr. Clark Harris regarding the Building a Better NOC Program at Wednesday's meeting in Tonkawa.

Dr. Harris has been holding meetings on all three campuses providing an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to provide suggestions to build a better college community.

"We have received good feedback from students and employees at these meetings," Dr. Harris said. "We will take these great ideas and through the Executive Council build a strategy going forward."

Harris said that at the Tonkawa meeting, he asked faculty and staff that attended NOC or had family members attend NOC to stand up.

"It was amazing, as 90% of the participants stood up," he said. "It just shows the investment that our faculty and staff have in NOC, as they are NOC. That is something we can build on for the future."

In administrator updates, Vice President for Enrollment Management Dr. Rick Edgington reported that enrollment for Spring 2022 is up 5% over Spring 2021. He said the largest jump in enrollment is through the Gateway Program at Oklahoma State University.

Diana Watkins, Interim Vice President for Academic Affairs, reported on successes for NOC students who are part of a rocket launch program as well as NOC Livestock Judging and Sheep Center students participating in events across the country.

Vice President for Community Relations & Development Sheri Snyder reported the Renfro Lectureship Series featuring singer/song writer Jimmy Webb will be held March 8. She also reported the creation of a quarterly newsletter by the NOC Alumni & Community Relations Office developed through an initiative by the NOC Alumni Advisory Board that will be sent digitally to NOC alums.

Vice President for Enid Jeremy Hise reported that 91 high school students were at NOC Enid participating in the Northern Encounter program on Feb. 16. Northern Encounter provides high school students, parents, and school counselors an opportunity to see what NOC has to offer.

Vice President for Student Affairs Jason Johnson reported that NOC's COVID-19 cases are tracking similar to state trends. He provided a report that showed that NOC has zero active COVID 19 cases. He added that NOC has had a total of 488 total positive cases for students and employees since the pandemic began and reported that all 488 individuals have recovered.

Other board actions were as follows:

In other business, the board approved the 2022-23 Academic Calendar. The fall semester will begin Monday, Aug. 22 while the spring semester will start Tuesday, Jan. 17.

The regents also approved the financial report and monthly allocations for December and January.

During lunch, the regents heard a program showcase from Social Science Instructor Troy Cochran who leads the Criminal Justice program at NOC.

The next board of regent meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, March 23 at NOC Stillwater in the Brown Conference Room at 1 p.m.

NOC Pre-Engineering students building rockets for ‘Quixote’s Quest’

The rocket program has created a great deal of excitement within the Pre-Engineering Group at NOC.

The current NOC team consists of six members, two from each campus.

The team has four females, and two males, two of the students are Native American, three of the students are non-traditional, three are second year students and three are first year students.

One of the students is not a pre-engineering major she is a biology major and is part of the Gateway Program. The team was able to participate with Tulsa Rocketry on February 13, and certified three rockets to the Level 1 Status, pictures and rocket launch videos can be found on the NOC Website.

The NOC team will be competing in April.

NOC attends OSRHE Higher Ed Day

Students, faculty, and staff from NOC and other Oklahoma's state system institutions gathered at the State Capitol today to demonstrate the value and importance of higher education in the state.

Speakers included Gov. Kevin Stitt, Sec. Ryan Walters, Speaker Charles McCall, Sen. Roger Thompson, Rep. Kevin Wallace, Sen. Adam Pugh, State Regents chair Jeffrey W. Hickman, and Chancellor Allison D. Garrett.

"Students, faculty and staff from Oklahoma's public colleges and universities came together today at our State Capitol to highlight the value of a college degree," said Garrett. "Among our state's critical occupations, 47 of the top 50 highest paying jobs require a college degree. U.S. Census Bureau data show that individuals with an associate degree earn almost $1,000 more per month than those with just a high school diploma, and individuals with a bachelor's degree earn over $2,000 more per month than high school graduates. Public higher education is critical to strengthening Oklahoma's economy and building our workforce, and must be a top state priority."

Four students also shared how pursuing a degree at an Oklahoma public college or university has positively impacted their lives.

For FY23, the State Regents are requesting $40 million for critical workforce development initiatives, including funds to help meet engineering, nursing and teacher education workforce needs, increase physician residency capacity in the state, fund pre-collegiate STEM Summer Academies and provide scholarships for adult students returning to complete their college degree or earn an industry-recognized micro-credential or certificate. Other priorities include requests to fully fund the concurrent enrollment program for high school seniors and juniors ($4 million), increase investments in need-based financial aid and scholarship programs ($6.85 million), and provide additional funding for system operations ($34.3 million), which will support campus operations and infrastructure; promote collaboration, innovation and efficiency initiatives among institutions; and strengthen the quality and experience of online education.

Another priority for the state system of higher education in the upcoming legislative session will be to maintain the current law regarding weapons on higher education campuses. Oklahoma higher education supports the Second Amendment and gun ownership. Under current law, campus presidents can authorize who may carry weapons on campus. The State Regents and the presidents of all 25 state system institutions strongly believe that the current law with regard to weapons on campus is working. The State Regents will also continue efforts to preserve the dedicated funding source for the Oklahoma's Promise scholarship. Recognized by the Southern Regional Education Board as one of the top promise scholarship programs in the nation, Oklahoma's Promise is considered a national model that combines emphases on academic preparation and financial support for college. Approximately 15,000 students are expected to receive the scholarship in college during this academic year. For more information about Oklahoma's Promise or to apply online, visit www.okpromise.org.

Jimmy Webb concert set for March 8

Grammy award winning songwriter Jimmy Webb will be appearing at Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa on Tuesday, March 8 as part of the NOC Renfro Lectureship Series. The event was originally scheduled for April 2020 but was postponed. Tickets already purchased for the event will be honored.

The event is sponsored by the Carl and Carolyn Renfro Endowed Lectureship Program and Northern Oklahoma College. Webb will appear in the Kinzer Performing Arts Center. Webb, known as America's Songwriter and native to Oklahoma, has written songs that transcend generations and genres including Wichita Lineman, MacArthur Park, By the Time I Get to Phoenix, and Didn't We.

During this "Evening with Jimmy Webb," guests will hear this multi-Grammy Award winner's songs and experience his insightful and often humorous stories about his work with Glen Campbell, Frank Sinatra, Linda Ronstadt (Still Within the Sound of My Voice), Art Garfunkel (All I Know), The Fifth Dimension (Up, Up and Away), The Highwaymen (The Highwayman), Kanye West (Famous, features Webb's Do What You Gotta Do), and more. Webb is the author of the memoir, The Cake and the Rain, and the "bible" of songwriting, Tunesmith: The Art of Songwriting. In 2019 Webb released a piano-only CD, "SlipCover", featuring some of his favorite songs from his contemporaries; Billy Joel, Paul Simon, The Rolling Stones and more. Individual tickets may be purchased for seating in the upper section of the Kinzer Performing Arts Center at a cost of $20 each. The tickets are non-refundable. Tickets may be purchased by credit card by calling 580.628.6214 or in person at the NOC Development Office, Vineyard Library-Administration Building, NOC Tonkawa. Former Oklahoma State Regent Carl Renfro and the late Carolyn Renfro established the Carl and Carolyn Renfro Endowed Lectureship Program with a gift in 2006. The primary purpose of the endowment is to provide support to cultivate and enhance the cultural and community enrichment offerings in northern Oklahoma to include lecture and performance series at Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa and in the Ponca City area.

Daisy award nominations accepted

Nursing faculty at Northern Oklahoma College will be honored April 30 with The DAISY Award® for Extraordinary Nursing faculty.

The award is part of The DAISY Foundation's mission to express gratitude to nurses with programs that recognize them for the extraordinary, compassionate and skillful care they provide patients and families.

Nursing faculty may be nominated by colleagues, peers, patients, families, or alumni. The award recipients are chosen by a committee at NOC to receive The DAISY Award which will be presented once year at the Pinning Ceremony at NOC Enid on April 30.

NOC Nursing Division Chair Dr. Nikole Hicks said, "NOC's nursing faculty work tirelessly to ensure future nurses have a strong foundation to provide nursing care for our communities. It is an honor to partner with the DAISY Foundation to recognize our exceptional nursing faculty – past, present, and future."

The DAISY Foundation expanded its' flagship brand The DAISY Award for Extraordinary Nurses to Academic Institutions in order to recognize the faculty who inspire compassionate care in their students and the students who demonstrate it during their education.

Each Honoree receives a certificate, a DAISY Award pin and a beautiful and meaningful sculpture called A Healer's Touch, hand-carved by artists of the Shona Tribe in Zimbabwe.

Nominations can be made at www.noc.edu.
