

Kreger, Vaughn inducted into Alumni Hall of Fame

Joe Kreger and Dr. Tara Tucker Vaughn were inducted into the Northern Oklahoma College Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame Saturday at the Renfro Center at NOC Tonkawa.

The inductions were made by NOC President Dr. Clark Harris.

"I am so honored to be included in the alumni hall of fame," Kreger said in his acceptance speech. "When I got the call, I was surprised. It was unexpected for sure but definitely appreciated."

"NOC has played such a role in my entire family all the way back to the days when NOC was known as the UPS (University Preparatory School)," he said. "As great as NOC has always been, it will continue to prosper in the future."

In her induction speech, Dr. Vaughn said, "I so appreciate this honor," she said. "It makes me realize that I could never have done this alone. The support NOC gave me in those days was invaluable. I learned how to study, I learned how to be better organized, and so many other things."

"NOC has been my foundation," she added.

Dr. Harris commented on the two inductees.

"Mr. Kreger, we are honored to recognize you this evening. Your accomplishments in agriculture and in the cattle industry are impressive. It is great that NOC can claim the Poet Laureate of Oklahoma," he said.

"Dr. Vaughn, Northern is honored to recognize you for your service as a registered nurse, as well as your service in the Army Reserve," Harris added.

"I love to see that NOC grads, as both as you have done by giving back as college educators. That is truly paying it forward. We are honored that you chose Northern and we are proud of the excellence you bring to your professions. You are bringing our mission to be Life Changing to the world."

The NOC Legacy Scholarship was also awarded to incoming freshman Jordan Nelson.

The NOC Alumni Legacy Scholarship has been established through the Northern Oklahoma College Foundation. Through the generous support of alumni and donors, such as each of you here this evening, the endowed scholarship will provide students an opportunity to pursue their educational goals at Northern Oklahoma College on the Tonkawa, Enid or Stillwater campus.

This scholarship will benefit a current student who has a parent or grandparent that is a Northern graduate. We are thrilled to be able to award this year's scholarship to Jordan Nelson. Nelson is an incoming freshman on the Tonkawa campus. Her ultimate goal is to pursue a career in physical therapy. She is the granddaughter of Lee Tayrien, a 1976 graduate of Northern earning an associate degree of Applied Science.

Kreger (Class of 1959), a native of Tonkawa,

Dr. Tara Vaughn and Joe Kreger received his Associate of Science degree from State University in 1961. Northern Oklahoma College in 1959 and his Bachelor of Science degree from Oklahoma

From 1965 to 1968, Kreger taught Agriculture courses at NOC and served as department chair. During this time, he pursued graduate work at OSU in Agricultural Education.

He worked for Continental Oil and Kreger Equipment before devoting his efforts to cattle ranching.

At age 56, he began writing poetry born of life experiences. Often referred to as “Cowboy Poetry,” his works were distributed across the area.

In 1988 Joe was appointed “Poet Laureate of Oklahoma” by Governor Frank Keating. Then, in 2021, Governor Kevin Stitt appointed Joe to the Laureate position once more, making him the first poet to have received this appointment twice.

Kreger was introduced by NOC Biological Science Instructor Dr. Kurt Campbell.

Dr. Vaughn (Class of 1989), a graduate of Tonkawa High School, Tara earned her Associate Degree in Business Administration from Northern Oklahoma College in 1989.

She earned her Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing at the University of Central Oklahoma and earned a Master of Public Health at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center.

Dr. Vaughn has practiced as a registered nurse for over 20 years and has served in the U.S. Army Reserve for over 28 years. Shortly after joining the Army Reserve in 1993, she attended nursing school, eventually earning her PhD in Nursing from the University of Texas at Tyler in 2019. Dr. Vaughn currently serves as a registered nurse at the VA Eastern Colorado Health Care System working in the area of Community Care. She is also a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army Reserve.

Vaughn’s mother, Marion Tucker, served as a Vice President for Information Technology at Northern Oklahoma College from 1980-2008.

Vaughn was introduced by Sheri Snyder, Vice President for Community Relations & Development. A video message from Nominee Faculty Emeritus Pat Hullet was also presented.

Alums from 1970-1972 were honored. They included Mark Humphries (1970), David Kahl (1970), Neil McConaghy (1970), Terry Pedigo (1970), Dennis Williams (1971), Melanie Williams (1972), and Peggy Thomas (1972).

Miss NOC Tonkawa, Emma Valgora, sang the National Anthem while Mia Claire Jones, Miss NOC Enid, provided the invocation. Servers included President’s Leadership Council students and NOC Lady Mavs basketball players.

The event was coordinated by Kayla Wooderson, Director of Alumni and Community Relations.

Catering was provided by Aladdin Food Services.

NOC students honored at OACC event at the State Capitol

Two Northern Oklahoma College students were among students named to the Oklahoma Association of Community Colleges (OACC) 2022 All Oklahoma Academic Team. Also, one NOC student received an OACC President's Tuition Waiver Award. NOC students were recognized during a March 29 ceremony, held at the Oklahoma State Capitol. Students recognized were Ashton Linton, Tonkawa, and Abriana Suprebo, Ponca City. The All-Oklahoma Academic Team Program provides statewide recognition to outstanding two-year college students. To be eligible, students must be nominated by their college president, eligible to graduate during the 2022 academic year and have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.5 out of a possible 4.0 on all college-level coursework completed in the past five years. Oklahoma is one of 39 states participating in the All-USA Academic Team Program. The State Academic Teams were introduced in 1994 as a way to provide scholastic recognition to community college students, while promoting excellence at two-year colleges. OACC is the organization of Oklahoma's 14 two-year colleges. Formed to advocate for the two-year college system as a powerful resource for economic and educational development, OACC also works to build awareness of community colleges as an excellent resource for students of all ages, at all stages of their careers. Also, NOC student Matthew Davis, Blackwell, was a recipient of the OACC President's Tuition Waiver Award. This $1,000 tuition waiver award goes to deserving students selected for their outstanding academic achievement, their record in the classroom and leadership ability. The waiver may be applied to tuition for the upcoming 2022-23 academic school year at $500 per semester.

Enid Planetarium Show April 6

The Mackie Planetarium on the NOC Enid campus will present our next show on Wednesday evening, April 6, at 7 p.m.

Planetarium Director Fritz Osell will present the night sky over Enid and show prominent constellations in the early evening sky during March and April.

Osell will show visitors how they can find a star factory in the constellation Orion. He will also show how to find some clusters of young stars and clusters of very old stars that formed 13 billion years ago shortly after the creation of Universe.

He said they can dim the sun and show the planets near the sun in our afternoon sky. Visitors will be able to see which zodiac constellation the sun and planets are visiting this month and visitors will take a tour of the solar system from Mercury to Pluto.

Osell will introduce a system called Slooh. Slooh enables anyone of any age to access research telescopes in the Canary Islands and in Chile. It will show some stunning images of galaxies, star clusters, planets and the sun that anyone may obtain from home using these telescopes.

Osell will show examples of educational projects conducted using the Slooh system and show a curriculum guide for this system for K-16.

There is no charge for the show but donations of non-perishable food items for Our Daily Bread will be accepted.

Enjoy some breakfast provided by the NWOSU Enid Campus! Representatives will be there to discuss the Bridge Program with NOC Enid students and continuing your education after your associate's degree.

March is Women History Month

Dr. Shaen McMurtrie and Dr. Mary Ann McCoy

In 1987, Congress designated March as Women's History Month to celebrate women's contributions to history, culture, and society. However, Women's History Month had its beginning in 1980 when President Jimmie Carter established National Women's History Week. In his speech President Carter stated:

From the first settlers who came to our shores, from the first American Indian families who befriended them, men and women have worked together to build this Nation. Too often, the women were unsung and sometimes their contributions went unnoticed. But the achievements, leadership, courage, strength, and love of the women who built America was as vital as that of the men whose names we know so well. (<https://www.ajc.com/news/jimmy-carter-contributions-women-history-month>)

This year, the Northern Oklahoma College Diversity Committee would like to highlight six notable women from Enid, Oklahoma, in celebration of Women's History Month. The first three are currently here in Enid in various capacities. Two of which attended NOC. The last three are more well-known on a national level and although two are not currently living in Enid, all three were all born in Enid. Highlighting these six women gives something of a flair towards: "look what you can achieve from little ole' Enid".

Johnetta Washington, an African American, an Alumni of NOC, and currently the HR Director of FedEx.

Angeilka Bajo, a Marshallese, an Alumni of NOC, and currently works for the Health Department.

Irene Asai Clem is a member of the Garfield County Bar Associate and currently voluntarily assigned as Assistant District Attorney.

Charlotte Declue, Native American (Osage) and a Native American Author. Declue's poetry is marked by skillful use of the conversational idiom and trenchant wit. Her poems have appeared in numerous literary journals in this country and Europe. Some of her works include: Ten Good Horses and Without Warning.

Carol Hamilton, Poet, Teacher, Children's Writer, b. 1935 in Enid, Oklahoma. She was the Poet Laureate of the state of Oklahoma from 1995 to 1997. Also of note, she received her BS degree from Phillips University, now the cite of NOC-Enid.

Leona Mitchell, is of African-American and Chickasaw descent, an actress, a singer (operatic soprano), and an Oklahoma Music Hall of Fame inductee.

Please discover information about other notable Oklahoma women from Enidbuzz.com and <https://www.okhistory.org/learn/womenshistory>.

Criminal Justice attends conference

The Delta Kappa Epsilon chapter of the Criminal Justice Society at Northern Oklahoma College recently attended and competed at the American Criminal Justice Association National Conference and Competition in Kansas City, Mo from March 21-25.

This trip was only possible with fundraising efforts and a generous grant from the NOC Foundation.

The students were exposed to a great career fair that included local, county, state and federal agencies in the criminal justice field. They were able to network students, colleges and universities from all over the United States. Students also heard presentations from FBI Agent Enoch Laudie, two exonerees from the Innocence Project and keynote speaker Matthew Horace about “choosing courage over avoidance.”

Students competed at the national level against all students who were considered lower division or students with 60 or less credit hours. NOC students competed in physical agility, crime scene investigation and written knowledge exams on various topics.
