

Day, Rapp named Homecoming king, queen

Tyler Day and Lacy Rapp are the NOC Tonkawa Homecoming King and Queen for 2024.

Day, a sophomore from Mannford, Oklahoma, and Rapp, a freshman from Coyle, Oklahoma, were crowned Thursday night at halftime of the men's game against Seminole.

Rapp represented the Business Club and is majoring in Business Administration. She is active in Business Club, Phi Theta Kappa, and is the Mavs' Basketball Manager.

Day represented the BCM. Day is a Social Science major and is active in the BCM, FCA, and is a member of the Mavs' Basketball Team.

The following were the finalists for queen:

Keely Hussey represented Lady Mavs Basketball. She is a sophomore from Okeene, Oklahoma, majoring in Elementary Education. She is active in the BCM, Phi Theta Kappa, and FCA.

Jaci Johnson represented FCA. Johnson, a sophomore from Tonkawa, is majoring in Pre-Med and Athletic Training. She is a member of the Mavs Softball Team, PLC, FCA, Phi Theta Kappa, Athletic Training, and Maverick Magic.

Haylaey Spaeth represented the BCM, she is a sophomore Digital Media and Design Major from Okeene, Oklahoma. She is active in the BCM, DMI Club, and is the Lady Mavs Basketball Manager.

King candidates included Edgar Dominguez,

King Tyler Day and Queen Lacy Rapp

Josiah Melton, and Brian Fredricks, Jr.

Dominguez is a sophomore from Blackwell. Dominguez represented the NOC Roustabouts. He is a Business major and is active in NOC Roustabouts, Choir and Theatre.

Marta Perez named Leo Canaday Memorial Scholarship winner

The Leo Canaday Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Marta Perez-Souza as the recipient for the 2024-2025 academic year. Perez-Souza is a freshman pre-baccalaureate nursing major from Guadalajara, Spain. She was joined by teammates Keely Hussey and Landri Hussey.

The Leo Canaday Memorial Scholarship was established by Leo's wife Pat. Through the generous support of family and friends, this scholarship provides students an opportunity to pursue their educational goals at Northern Oklahoma College in Tonkawa and is presented to a member of the NOC Women's Basketball team.

Representing the Canaday family this evening, are the late Leo and Pat Canaday's daughter, Vicki Hardesty, her husband, Allen and their great grandchildren, Leo, Mikaela, and Kylee Hardesty. The Canaday's daughter Lisa Canaday, who watched the presentation via live-stream from Florida.

Assisting in presenting the scholarship certificate to Perez-Souza was Lady Maverick's Head Coach Greg Krause, NOC Interim President Diana Watkins, Vice President for Development and Community Relations Sheri Snyder, and NOC Athletic Director Alan Foster.

Life changing.

NOC offering free tax preparation

Northern Oklahoma College Tonkawa is providing free basic income tax return preparation for students, NOC employees, and area residents every Thursday starting Feb. 8 at NOC Tonkawa.

Singles or families making less than $64,000 per year qualify for the free service.

Trained tax preparers from the NOC Business Division and area volunteers will be available for tax assistance each Thursday beginning Thursday, Feb. 8. Taxpayers also have an option to prepare their own basic federal and state tax return using the free e-filing software.

Cara Beth Johnson, Business division chair said, “This is a great opportunity for our students to provide a community service and gain tax preparation experience.”

The Cultural Engagement Center (CEC) is hosting the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program every Thursday through April 11. The CEC will be closed March 18-22 for spring break and for inclement weather. The CEC is located in the Vineyard Administration/Library building.

Interested parties need to bring a photo ID for all filers; Social Security cards and birthdates for taxpayer, spouse, and dependents; W-2 forms; 1099 forms; receipts for childcare costs, education expenses, and other deductions; checking account and routing number for refund; and 1095-A, -B, or -C healthcare coverage or exemption.

Tax preparation is done by appointment only. Please contact Cara Beth Johnson at 580.628.6340 or carolyn.johnson@noc.edu. Tax preparers are available from 5 p.m. - 8 p.m. No drop off's will be accepted, individuals must be present during tax preparation.

Northern Oklahoma College and the IRS are sponsoring the program.
