

New Hire Procedures for Supervisors

Listed below are the steps that need to be followed whenever a department/division has a potential new hire:

1. After all interviews are completed - fill out the Position Interview Sheet and return to HR. This form states all those who were interviewed and who is being hired. This should be signed by the Division Chair/Department Head, the Vice President and the President. Applications for all new employees must be on file in HR.
2. Have the potential new employee complete the two Background Check forms and the Request for Personnel Action Form. These forms are located on the HR Website under New Employee, select Pre-Employment Packet for Potential New Employee. Please make sure all documents have been signed before submitted to HR.
3. Request for Personnel Action Form –The employee should complete Section 1 and sign on line #1 of Section 3. The Supervisor will complete all of Section 2 and sign on line #2 of Section 3.
4. Background Authorization forms - After all required signatures are received (from the VP of the Department, VP of Financial Affairs and the President) HR will notify the supervisor by email. This process may take several days.
5. After the pre-employment process is complete the new employee may complete the employment paper work. On the Human Resource website you will click on New Employee then on the Employment Packet that pertains to the type of employee you are hiring; fulltime, part-time, hourly or adjunct.
6. No employee will be allowed to start work without the above process completed. HR will notify you when they are authorized to work.
7. The Request for Personnel Action Form must be completed for each position that an employee holds.
8. Without all the above paperwork completed, the new employee cannot be entered into the State Payroll System resulting in the new employees pay being delayed.

Give Form W-4 to your employer.
Your withholding is subject to review by the IRS.

OMB No. 1545-0074

2025

Step 1: Enter Personal Information	(a) First name and middle initial	Last name	(b) Social security number
	Address		Does your name match the name on your social security card? If not, to ensure you get credit for your earnings, contact SSA at 800-772-1213 or go to www.ssa.gov .
	City or town, state, and ZIP code
	(c) ☐ Single or Married filing separately ☐ Married filing jointly or Qualifying surviving spouse ☐ Head of household (Check only if you're unmarried and pay more than half the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual.)

TIP: Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine the most accurate withholding for the rest of the year if: you are completing this form after the beginning of the year; expect to work only part of the year; or have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), dependents, other income (not from jobs), deductions, or credits. Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Complete Steps 2–4 ONLY if they apply to you; otherwise, skip to Step 5. See page 2 for more information on each step, who can claim exemption from withholding, and when to use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

Step 2: Multiple Jobs or Spouse Works	Complete this step if you (1) hold more than one job at a time, or (2) are married filing jointly and your spouse also works. The correct amount of withholding depends on income earned from all of these jobs. Do only one of the following. (a) Use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App for the most accurate withholding for this step (and Steps 3–4). If you or your spouse have self-employment income, use this option; or (b) Use the Multiple Jobs Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result in Step 4(c) below; or (c) If there are only two jobs total, you may check this box. Do the same on Form W-4 for the other job. This option is generally more accurate than (b) if pay at the lower paying job is more than half of the pay at the higher paying job. Otherwise, (b) is more accurate ☐

Complete Steps 3–4(b) on Form W-4 for only ONE of these jobs. Leave those steps blank for the other jobs. (Your withholding will be most accurate if you complete Steps 3–4(b) on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.)

Step 3: Claim Dependent and Other Credits	If your total income will be $200,000 or less ($400,000 or less if married filing jointly): Multiply the number of qualifying children under age 17 by $2,000 $ _____ Multiply the number of other dependents by $500..... $ _____ Add the amounts above for qualifying children and other dependents. You may add to this the amount of any other credits. Enter the total here	3	$
Step 4 (optional): Other Adjustments	(a) Other income (not from jobs). If you want tax withheld for other income you expect this year that won't have withholding, enter the amount of other income here. This may include interest, dividends, and retirement income	4(a)	$
	(b) Deductions. If you expect to claim deductions other than the standard deduction and want to reduce your withholding, use the Deductions Worksheet on page 3 and enter the result here	4(b)	$
	(c) Extra withholding. Enter any additional tax you want withheld each pay period	4(c)	$

Step 5: Sign Here	Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this certificate, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true, correct, and complete.
	Employee's signature (This form is not valid unless you sign it.)		Date

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2025 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2024 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2025. You had no federal income tax liability in 2024 if (1) your total tax on line 24 on your 2024 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 27, 28, and 29), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2025 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 17, 2026.

Your privacy. Steps 2(c) and 4(a) ask for information regarding income you received from sources other than the job associated with this Form W-4. If you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b) as an alternative; if you have concerns with providing the information asked for in Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c) as an alternative.

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Are submitting this form after the beginning of the year;
2. Expect to work only part of the year;
3. Have changes during the year in your marital status, number of jobs for you (and/or your spouse if married filing jointly), or number of dependents, or changes in your deductions or credits;
4. Receive dividends, capital gains, social security, bonuses, or business income, or are subject to the Additional Medicare Tax or Net Investment Income Tax; or
5. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

TIP: Have your most recent pay stub(s) from this year available when using the estimator to account for federal income tax that has already been withheld this year. At the beginning of next year, use the estimator again to recheck your withholding.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work. Submit a separate Form W-4 for each job.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

Instead, if you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. This step provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 501, Dependents, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information. You can also include other tax credits for which you are eligible in this step, such as the foreign tax credit and the education tax credits. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2025 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b)—Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job. To be accurate, submit a new Form W-4 for all other jobs if you have not updated your withholding since 2019.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 1 $ _____
- 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.

 - b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b 2b $ _____
 - c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c 2c $ _____

Step 4(b)—Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2025 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income 1 $ _____
- 2 Enter:

{	• $30,000 if you're married filing jointly or a qualifying surviving spouse • $22,500 if you're head of household • $15,000 if you're single or married filing separately	}		2	$ _____

5. Total Number of Allowances You Are Claiming: Add Lines 1 through 4 and enter total here	5
6. Additional Withholding: If you expect to have a balance due (as a result of interest income, dividends, income from a part-time job, etc.) on your tax return, you may request your employer to withhold an additional amount of tax from each pay period. Employee's Signature (Form is not valid unless you sign it)	Date (MM/DD/YYYY)
---	-------------------

Form OK-W-4 is completed so you can have as much "take-home pay" as possible without an income tax liability due to the state of Oklahoma when you file your return. Deductions and exemptions reduce the amount of your taxable income. If your income is less than the total of your personal exemption plus your standard deduction, you should mark "Exempt" on Line 7 above. The following amounts of your annual Oklahoma adjusted gross income will not be taxed by the state of Oklahoma when you file your individual income tax return.

Single	Married Filing Joint
$1,000 - personal exemption	$ 2,000 - personal exemption
$6,350 - standard deduction	$12,700 - standard deduction
$7,350 - Total	$14,700 - Total
+$1,000 for each dependent	+$1,000 for each dependent

Items to Remember:

- If your filing status is married filing joint and your spouse works, do not claim an exemption on Form OK-W-4 for your spouse.
- If you and your spouse have dependents, please be sure only one of you claim the dependents on your Form OK-W-4. If both spouses claim the dependents as an allowance on Form OK-W-4, it may cause you to owe additional Oklahoma income tax when you file your return.
- If you have more than one employer, you should claim a smaller number or no allowances on each Form OK-W-4 filed with employers other than your principal employer so the amount withheld will be closer to your amount of total tax.
- If you itemize your deductions, instead of using the standard deduction, the amount not taxed by Oklahoma may be a greater or lesser amount.
- If you are claiming an "Exempt" status due to the Military Spouses Residency Relief Act you must provide Form OW-9-MSE "Annual Withholding Tax Exemption Certification for Military Spouses".

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION FORM 2A

This beneficiary form applies to active and non-retired members of the Teachers' Retirement System of Oklahoma (TRS). If you are retired and wish to update or make changes to your beneficiary designation, please use Beneficiary Designation Form 2R. The beneficiary designations you make on this form revoke and replace all prior beneficiary designations with TRS. Your designations do not become effective until this form is signed by you and received by TRS. Do not alter this form. Remember to keep a copy of your completed form for your records.

It is very important that you provide the full legal name, address, relationship, date of birth, and Social Security number of each beneficiary you designate. This information is essential in ensuring that your named beneficiaries can be located and receive your intended benefit amount. The Beneficiary Designation Form has two Sections: Member Account and Death Benefit.

Section 1. Member Account - Upon the death of a member who has not retired, the designated beneficiary(ies) shall receive the member's account balance as provided by law. Provided, if more than one primary beneficiary is named, the beneficiary shall not have the option to choose Option 2 (joint annuitant) retirement, if applicable, upon the member's death. If you have more than four primary beneficiaries, use a copy of this page.

Section 2. Death Benefit - Upon the death of an active (in-service) member who has not retired, TRS will pay to a beneficiary an $18,000 death benefit as provided by law. The member may designate the same beneficiary(ies) listed in Section 1 or a different beneficiary(ies) to receive the death benefit. Provided, if the beneficiary in Section 2 differs from the sole beneficiary of the member's account in Section 1, no beneficiary shall have the option to choose Option 2 (joint annuitant) retirement, if applicable, in lieu of the death benefit. If no beneficiary is named in Section 2, the death benefit shall be paid to the beneficiary(ies) named in Section 1.

Each Section has three parts: Member Information, Primary and Contingent Beneficiary Designation, and Signature. Please print clearly in ink.

Member Information – Provide your full legal name and SSN or Member ID.

Primary Beneficiary Designation – You can designate one or more primary beneficiaries. All primary beneficiaries share equally unless you note otherwise. If multiple primary beneficiaries are named and a primary beneficiary dies before or simultaneously with you, the remaining primary beneficiary(ies) will be entitled to equal shares of the deceased beneficiary's designated benefit amount.

Contingent Beneficiary Designation – You can designate one or more contingent beneficiaries. Contingent beneficiaries receive benefits only in the event all primary beneficiaries die before or simultaneously with you. All contingent beneficiaries share equally unless you note otherwise on your form. If multiple contingent beneficiaries are named and a contingent beneficiary dies before or simultaneously with you, the remaining contingent beneficiary(ies) will be entitled to equal shares of the deceased beneficiary's designated benefit amount.

Signature– You must sign and date each page of the form.

Northern Oklahoma College offers its employees the option of designating a beneficiary to receive the employee's final paycheck in the event of that employee's death.

If an employee elects to name a beneficiary, they must complete the Outstanding Wages Beneficiary Designation Form on the next page and submit it to Human Resources. Should the employee desire to change the beneficiary at some point in the future, it will be their responsibility to complete and submit an updated copy to Human Resources. For example, if the employee names their spouse and is later divorced, they may want to complete a new form.

Primary beneficiary: Receives priority distribution upon the employee's death.

Contingent beneficiary: Receives distribution only if the primary beneficiary(ies) are deceased at the time of the employee's death.

If an employee does not elect to name a beneficiary, the payroll office will issue the employee's final paycheck, including any pay for unused annual/vacation leave, in accordance with Title 40, O.S., Section 165.3a, Payment of wages to surviving spouse and children. Please be advised that if your final check is processed without the naming of a beneficiary, your surviving spouse, or if there is no surviving spouse, your dependent children, or their guardians or the conservators of their estates, will receive in equal shares a total up to the maximum $3,000 allowed by law. Any remaining payment would go into the estate and go through probate. Please be advised that access to the funds processed to an estate may be delayed due to the probate process.

Wage beneficiary forms must be signed and dated to be in effect. If any of the information for the named beneficiary(ies) is incomplete or the form is not signed and/or dated, the entire form will be considered invalid. The beneficiary form on file with the most current date supersedes any previously submitted Wage Beneficiary Designation Forms. New Health Insurance Marketplace Coverage Options and Your Health Coverage

Form Approved
OMB No. 1210-0149
(expires 8-31-2023)

PART A: General Information

When key parts of the health care law take effect in 2014, there will be a new way to buy health insurance: the Health Insurance Marketplace. To assist you as you evaluate options for you and your family, this notice provides some basic information about the new Marketplace.

What is the Health Insurance Marketplace?

The Marketplace is designed to help you find health insurance that meets your needs and fits your budget. The Marketplace offers "one-stop shopping" to find and compare private health insurance options. You may also be eligible for a new kind of tax credit that lowers your monthly premium right away. Open enrollment for health insurance coverage through the Marketplace begins in October 2013 for coverage starting as early as January 1, 2014.

Can I Save Money on my Health Insurance Premiums in the Marketplace?

You may qualify to save money and lower your monthly premium, but only if your employer does not offer coverage, or offers coverage that doesn't meet certain standards. The savings on your premium that you're eligible for depends on your household income.

Does Employer Health Coverage Affect Eligibility for Premium Savings through the Marketplace?

Yes. If you have an offer of health coverage from your employer that meets certain standards, you will not be eligible for a tax credit through the Marketplace and may wish to enroll in your employer's health plan. However, you may be eligible for a tax credit that lowers your monthly premium, or a reduction in certain cost-sharing if your employer does not offer coverage to you at all or does not offer coverage that meets certain standards. If the cost of a plan from your employer that would cover you (and not any other members of your family) is more than 9.5% of your household income for the year, or if the coverage your employer provides does not meet the "minimum value" standard set by the Affordable Care Act, you may be eligible for a tax credit.¹

Note: If you purchase a health plan through the Marketplace instead of accepting health coverage offered by your employer, then you may lose the employer contribution (if any) to the employer-offered coverage. Also, this employer contribution -as well as your employee contribution to employer-offered coverage- is often excluded from income for Federal and State income tax purposes. Your payments for coverage through the Marketplace are made on an after-tax basis.

How Can I Get More Information?

The Marketplace can help you evaluate your coverage options, including your eligibility for coverage through the Marketplace and its cost. Please visit HealthCare.gov for more information, including an online application for health insurance coverage and contact information for a Health Insurance Marketplace in your area.

¹ An employer-sponsored health plan meets the "minimum value standard" if the plan's share of the total allowed benefit costs covered by the plan is no less than 60 percent of such costs.

PART B: Information About Health Coverage Offered by Your Employer

This section contains information about any health coverage offered by your employer. If you decide to complete an application for coverage in the Marketplace, you will be asked to provide this information. This information is numbered to correspond to the Marketplace application.
