

NOC, Enid Schools recognized for business partnership

Northern Oklahoma College and Enid Public Schools was one of 27 business and higher education partnerships throughout the state were recently recognized as innovative collaborations that further the education of Oklahoma's workforce.

The Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education's Regents Business Partnership Excellence Award is designed to highlight successful partnerships between higher education institutions, businesses, and the community to further cultivate the higher learning environment through State Regents' Economic Development Grants. Kyla Guyette, Chief Executive Officer of the Oklahoma Workforce Commission; State Regents' Chair Dennis Casey; State Regent Steven W. Taylor; and Chancellor Sean Burrage participated in the ceremony, held May 6 at the University of Central Oklahoma.

"When Oklahoma businesses partner with our colleges and universities, they're not just accessing talent – they're investing in our state's future," Burrage said. "The State Regents are proud to recognize and celebrate these positive collaborations that promote economic growth, innovation, and job creation in Oklahoma."

"The partnership between Enid Public Schools and Northern Oklahoma College is incredibly strong and we were pleased with this opportunity to showcase it," said NOC President Diana Morris Watkins. All of us at Northern are grateful to the EPS administration for their willingness to support collaboration that truly create Life-Changing academic and extra-curricular opportunities for students. "

The following remarks were read as the schools went forward to accept their award.

Enid Public Schools (EPS) is a valued partner of Northern Oklahoma College, fostering collaboration to strengthen educational offerings and community impact, growing the student pipeline for the workforce of northwest Oklahoma. Through a long-term facility usage agreement, EPS and NOC share resources and services, including the Integris Infield of Dreams and Failing Field, where EPS assisted with turf installation and new lighting. The Early 30 and Dual Credit to Degree initiatives have celebrated concurrent student successes, with the first four students receiving Enid High School and NOC diplomas in spring 2024. Additionally, EPS hosts NOC men's basketball, offering elementary students a memorable experience.

Institutions involved in these partnerships provide $500 for tuition waivers to employees of the partnering businesses; internships that enable current students to work at the partnering businesses; faculty externships with the partnering businesses; and/or enhancement of the partnerships with additional equipment,

NOC set to become Purple Heart College

The Northern Oklahoma College Board of Regents approved a proclamation that makes NOC a Purple Heart College.

Regents passed the proclamation at Wednesday's meeting in Enid.

The board heard a presentation from Elaine Johns, Executive Director of the Woodring Wall of Honor and Veterans Park in Enid. Three-time Purple Heart recipient Jack Toney was also present at the presentation.

Johns explained the mission of the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

"The mission of the Military Order of the Purple Heart is to foster an environment of goodwill and camaraderie among combat wounded veterans, promote patriotism, support necessary legislation initiatives, and provide service to all veterans and their families."

NOC will receive campus signs, a large personalized plaque, and a professional proclamation suitable for framing.

Board of Regent Chair Jason Turnbow said, "We appreciate this opportunity and we thank you for your service."

A formal ceremony will be held during the Fall 2025 semester.

In other actions, the regents approved an Exchange of Service Agreement and Resource Agreement with the Northern Oklahoma College Foundation, inc. The annual agreements allow the NOCF and NOC to operate.

Regents also approved the Group Three Trustees for the NOCF including Patricia Hullet, Brady Purdy, LynnDe Funk, Dr. Cheryl Evans, and Tom Poole. There was one resignation from the NOCF, Ken Bellmard.

"While we will miss having Trustee Bellmard's input," NOC President Diana Morris Watkins said, "We are proud of the work he's doing in Washington DC which prevents him from continuing on the board at this time and are excited to have former Social Science Instructor and current Blackwell Mayor Pat Hullet joining the strong group of leaders who make up the NOC Foundation Board."

Regents approved a contract with Great Western Dining Services for the 2025-26 academic year. The past year was the first year for Great Western Dining Services at NOC. Regents also approved rental property, facility rental fees, and facility usage fees for all college communities.

Room and Board rates were also approved for the 2025-26 academic year with a slight increase for students depending on their choice of dining options. The highest increase would be $195 per semester per student.

Regents approved the financial report, presented by Vice President for Financial Affairs Anita Simpson. Regents also approved the following purchases of $25,000 or more. Approved were Annual Microsoft Volume Licensing Renewal, $37,227.50; Residential Houses (roofs), $25,620.00; Nursing Testing Software, $54,352.00; Print Shop Equipment, $176,591.52.

In administrative updates, Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Shelly Mencacci reported that graduation went very well and the academic office is currently performing assessments of the 2024-25 academic year.

Sheri Snyder, Vice President for Development & Community Relations, reported that the school's new website project is moving forward with an expected launch on Aug. 18.

Vice President for Enid Jeremy Hise said that three Enid High School students will receive a Dual Credit Degree from NOC at their graduation this weekend. He said there continue to be more Enid High students taking advantage of the Dual Credit Program.

Dr. Rick Edgington, Vice President for Enrollment Management said that Fall 2025 enrollment is going well with a number of the athletic
