Commencement Speaker

Former Oklahoma Governor, George Nigh

George Nigh served as governor four times, first serving as the Oklahoma governor in 1963 serving an unexpired term and then later serving a second unexpired term in 1979. He then served two terms from 1979-1987.

In 1950, while a senior at East Central University, Nigh delivered his first commencement speech to an eighth grade class in Pittsburgh County. Since then, Nigh has never missed a year giving a commencement address now counting 76 straight years. He has given over 250 commencement speeches.

Nigh, a native of McAlester, Oklahoma, graduated from McAlester High School. After serving in the United States Navy, Nigh attended Eastern Oklahoma A & M College, now known as Eastern Oklahoma State College. He then graduated from East Central State College in Ada, Oklahoma in 1950. From 1951 to 1959, he alternated between service in the Oklahoma House of Representatives, and as a teacher in the McAlester public schools.

During his tenure in the state legislature, he introduced legislation designating “Oklahoma!” as the state song. He served as lieutenant governor of Oklahoma from 1959 to 1963. Taking office at age 31, he became the youngest state lieutenant governor in the United States.

In 1963, Nigh was sworn in as the 17th governor of Oklahoma for nine days, filling an unexpired term. He later served five days in 1979, serving another unexpired term. 1978, he was elected Oklahoma’s 22nd governor serving from 1979-1987.

He later served as the president of the University of Central Oklahoma from 1992-1997. He also is an Oklahoma Hall of Fame Inductee receiving that honor in 1989.

The Nigh University Student Center at UCO was named in honor of George and his wife, Donna.

George and Donna Nigh also founded the George and Donna Nigh Leadership Academy held yearly in Oklahoma City for students planning a career in public service.

HISTORICAL ACADEMIC REGALIA OVERVIEW

The origins of academic dress date back to the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were taking form. The ordinary dress of the scholar, whether student or teacher, was the dress of a cleric. In England in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges forbade "excess in apparel" and prescribed the wearing of a long gown. In the days of Henry VIII of England, Oxford and Cambridge first began prescribing a definite academic dress and made it a matter of university control even to the extent of its minor details.

The assignment of colors to signify certain faculties was to be a much later development and one which was to be standardized only in the United States in the late 19th century.

The gowns for the associate's, bachelor's or master's degrees are untrimmed. For the doctor's degree, the gown is faced down the front with black velvet; three bars of velvet are used across the sleeves. These facings and crossbars may be of velvet of the color distinctive of the disciplines to which the degree pertains.

For all academic purposes, including trimmings of doctors' gowns, edging of hoods and tassels of caps, the colors associated with the different disciplines are as follows:

Agriculture -----	Maize	Music -----	Pink
Arts, Letters, Humanities -----	White	Nursing -----	Apricot
Commerce, Accounting, Business -----	Drab	Oratory (Speech) -----	Silver Gray
Dentistry -----	Lilac	Pharmacy -----	Olive Green
Economics -----	Copper	Philosophy -----	Dark Blue
Education -----	Light Blue	Physical Education -----	Sage Green
Engineering -----	Orange	Public Administration, including
Fine Arts, including Architecture -----	Brown	Foreign Service -----	Peacock Blue
Forestry -----	Russet	Public Health -----	Salmon Pink
Journalism -----	Crimson	Science -----	Golden Yellow
Law -----	Purple	Social Work -----	Citron
Library Services -----	Lemon	Theology -----	Scarlet
Medicine -----	Green	Veterinary Science -----	Gray

The hoods are lined with the official color or colors of the college or university conferring the degree; more than one color is shown by division of the field color in a variety of ways.
