2025-2026

Welcome to the Residence Halls at Northern Oklahoma College

For new students, it is a hearty welcome to the Northern family; for returning students, it is the welcoming back of familiar faces. We are pleased that you have chosen to live at NOC. Here at NOC we are committed to creating an environment conducive to learning, leadership development and relationship building.

As we know, a college education is certainly not limited to the classroom alone. Any education for “life” also includes the social and interpersonal dimensions of resident life. These elements are important to a well-rounded education. Best of all, NOC residents have close and immediate access to the academic, social and recreational activities at NOC.

Again, welcome to Northern and our hope is that as a member of our residential community, you will gain life-long friendships, new interests and skills and a better understanding of yourself and others.

Best wishes and success,

Jason Johnson

The student should check with the residence hall staff for room personalization guidelines before changes are made. In order to maintain an attractive residence hall, do not use tacks or nails in the walls. All pictures and decorations must be hung with products (Command strips, tape, etc.) that will not damage the walls, except Mavericks and Jets Hall must use push pins. Rooms must remain in the same condition as on check-in day.

Items to be displayed in or on room windows are not allowed. The display of materials, advertising, flags or signage in windows or viewable in or from public spaces is not permitted. Each window in student rooms is equipped with blinds. These blinds should be the only object visible in the window.

Students will need to bring pillows, sheets, blankets, pillowcases, comforters, towels and wash cloths.

The size of the mattress is between 78 and 80 inches (XL twin).

Mail is delivered to and picked up from each residence hall daily except weekends and holidays. Large packages can be picked up in the Student Affairs Office.

Only the following electrical appliances are allowed: desk lamps, radios, televisions, DVD players, CD players, MP3 players, coffee makers, mini refrigerators, clocks, irons, hairdryers, electric shavers, blankets, fans, toothbrushes and computers. All other electrical appliances are prohibited. Do not plug more than two pieces of equipment into an electrical outlet. Extension cords are prohibited. Use a fused power strip instead. Radios, televisions and CD players must be operated so that they do not interfere with student's study habits.

Air conditioning units in the window or in the room, camp stoves, ceiling fans, slow cookers, electric skillets, breadmakers, griddles, halogen lamps, hot oil popcorn poppers, hot plates, oven broilers, power tools, rice cookers/steamers, sandwich makers, George Foreman Grills, space heaters, toasters or toaster ovens are not allowed. Candles (lighted or unlighted) are not permitted.

The use of products containing tobacco (including, but not limited to, cigarettes, cigars, pipes, e-cigarettes, vapors, smokeless tobacco including chewing on an unlit cigar or any other tobacco products) is prohibited. This policy also prohibits the use of herbal tobacco products, simulated tobacco products that imitate or mimic tobacco products, and marijuana.

NOC does not carry insurance on student belongings and is not responsible for damage or theft of any personal property in residence hall rooms. Students are encouraged to purchase renters' insurance or make arrangements with an insurance company to insure the coverage of the student's personal belongings. If personal items become missing or stolen, the student needs to contact the residence hall staff and Campus Security. Students should engrave their belongings with ID numbers.

Each hall has a council that serves as the governing body of that particular hall. Leadership positions are open for contested elections each fall. The hall staff will have information regarding possible employment as residence hall staff and leadership opportunities.

The possession or consumption of beer or other alcoholic beverages in College residence halls, on College property or at any affair sponsored by or for a student organization is prohibited.

One of the most important people students will interact with is the Residence Hall Director. The Residence Hall Directors have the overall responsibility for their own residence halls. If the Hall Director is not available for assistance, students should contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Students need to first contact their Residence Hall Director for all maintenance, heating or cooling problems or pest control problems. If it is not addressed or more attention is needed, then contact the Office of Student Affairs 580.628.6240.

Roommates are primarily responsible for resolving their own differences. Students should discuss concerns with the roommate and try to resolve the conflict together. If necessary, students may ask the Residence Hall Director to sit in on the discussion and attempt to resolve the conflict. If the conflict remains unresolved, students may also contact the Dean of Students to help attempt to resolve the issue. Only after these resources have been used, students may then make a request for a room change.

The residence hall staff is an excellent resource for students. If they do not have a solution, then they will refer students to the appropriate office on campus.

The residence halls are equipped with coin-operated washers and dryers. Students must furnish their laundry supplies.

No pets are allowed in the residence halls.

Sunday-Thursday 10 a.m. to midnight, Friday and Saturday 10 a.m.-1 a.m. Guests must always be escorted in the residence hall by the resident. Quiet hours are planned for study and are to be observed from 8 p.m. to 9 a.m. Sunday-Thursday and 10 p.m. to 10 a.m. Friday and Saturday. During finals week, 24-hour quiet hours are in effect. See the NOC Student Handbook for more information.

NOC provides each residence hall room with a high-speed Ethernet connection to the campus computing environment and the internet. NOC provides and maintains two RJ-45 Ethernet connections in each residence hall room. To connect a computer, a 10/100Base - T Ethernet card must be installed in the computer and a RJ-45 Ethernet cable will be needed. Note: an RJ-45 cable is NOT the same thing as a phone cable. Please utilize only the port that is located in your room. Limited wireless access is also available in all residence halls. Please be aware that NOC reserves the right to monitor any and all electronic transmissions over the network. Additional details of NOC’s policy on proper use of student IT resources can be obtained at the IT Help Desk or online (noc.edu).

Students may request a room change with the Coordinator of Resident Life upon moving into the residence hall. Requests are approved by the Dean of Students. Room changes are not made immediately. Students may make the request upon arrival. However, room changes will not be considered until all students have checked into their rooms. Hall assignments are based on availability.

Students are responsible for cleaning their rooms and private bathrooms and removing trash. Rooms are subject to regularly scheduled inspections by the Residence Hall Director in order to assist residents in maintaining clean and orderly rooms. Community areas of the residence halls, such as lobby, laundry and restrooms are cleaned by custodial staff.

Parking is at a premium on grounds and often the available parking may not be immediately adjacent to a student’s building or facilities. Students may park in any NOC parking lot on campus. All students who bring a vehicle to NOC are required to display a parking permit.

Parking permits are available in the Office of Student Affairs. Students will need to know the make, model, year and license plate number of each vehicle to be registered. The cost of the permit has already been assessed to the student’s account.

If you have a therapy/support animal, proper documentation and paperwork should be done with the Disabilities Coordinator prior to bringing them to NOC. Contact Student Affairs for further information.
