President's Leadership Scholarship (PLC) and NOC/OSU Gateway Scholarship

The PLC is an organization whose purpose is to develop and promote scholarship and leadership qualities to be used as a recruitment tool for Northern Oklahoma College. Membership is open to all students who have the Presidential Leadership Scholarship (Tonkawa, Enid) or the NOC/OSU Gateway Ambassadors Scholarship (Stillwater). These scholarships are based on academic and leadership achievements {23 ACT, 3.6 GPA}. This includes $7,000 per semester of NOC related expenses for 4 semesters. Deadline is February 20.

Benefits of Joining the President's Leadership Council (PLC)

Students who have been awarded the President's Leadership Scholarship or the NOC/OSU Gateway Scholarship are members of the PLC. A few opportunities included in PLC membership are, but not limited to:

- All-expense paid trip to Washington D.C.
- Participating in 2 NOC groups of your choice
- Help with and attend NOC events throughout the year
- Experience PLC Retreat. A day full of fun activities!
- Meet and be a part of a diverse group of students
- List PLC on professional resume and applications
